REFLECTION:

For a priest to let himself be built into a “spiritual house”, it requires of him much prayer and sacrifice. He cannot serve unless he prays deeply and daily. This goes beyond formulaic vocal prayers and into the intimate experiential unity with Christ brought about by “mental prayer” and “contemplation”; the methods of which are true treasures of the Church.

This rule goes for all the faithful too. No one can do anything on their own, especially advance spiritually and gain intimacy with Jesus. We need to seek His grace in a daily robust, intimate, and loving prayer life with the Lord. This prepares the “soil of your soul” to receive especially the graces of the Eucharist when we come to be united to our Lord on Sunday at the Holy Mass.

The requirement of every Catholic, Priest, Bishop, Deacon or laity to become holy is because God loves you and wants to be with you for eternity. This is accomplished by doing it His way, not our way. We are called to be “sons of God”. We must cooperate with His grace and will to achieve this. Die to yourself by being immersed in the Love of God through deep prayer. Repent (change your ways) and sin no more. Become the “spiritual house” you were created to be.

Catholic Catechesis:

Lord, show us the Father!

Do you allow any troubles to rob you of God's gift of peace? Jesus encouraged his disciples to put their faith and hope in God the Father and in himself.

Jesus proclaims I am the Way (John 14:6). He alone knows the way to the Father because he has been with the Father from the beginning. He personally is the way to the Father's kingdom, and we cannot miss it if we follow him. Jesus proclaims that he is the Truth (John 14:6). Many can say, "I have taught you the truth." Only Jesus can say, I am the Truth. He possesses in himself the fulness of truth. The truth which Jesus proclaims has power to set us free from ignorance, deception, and sin. Jesus proclaims that he is the Life (John 14:6). He not only shows us the path of life (Psalm 16:11); he gives the kind of life which only God can give - abundant life that lasts forever. Is there any trouble, fear, or distraction that keeps you from the perfect peace and joy of a life surrendered to Jesus Christ? Jesus makes it possible for each of us to personally know God as our Father.
