The Triumphal Entry got so many things right but the crucial things wrong. Jesus received a royal welcome for short-sighted reasons. Those who cut the branches and spread their coats expected a lot from Jesus. They didn't expect enough. They wanted a king; they needed so much more.

The Triumphal Entry represents all those clear moments when humanity has expressed its strongest wishes for God to intervene but has mistaken its own purposes for God's. This opening scene in Jesus' final week serves as a reminder of all the ways in which Jesus' entry into history was misunderstood even by those who were expecting Him. The Triumphal Entry teaches us to acknowledge Jesus Christ for who He really is.

Who do you think Jesus Christ is and what do you want from him?

COMMUNITY INFORMATION:

- A very heartfelt thanks goes out to Maureen Waston for preparing the Lenten Reconciliation Service reflection based on the Beatitudes, to Fr. Julian Studden for encouraging us to prepare for Reconciliation using the five Rs, and to all the priests who generously made themselves available so parishioners could receive the sacrament of Reconciliation.
- Thank you to Philip Knight for his creative solution to keep the pew prayer cards neatly organized. Please handle the cards with care when removing or replacing them by sliding them up or down within the plastic card slot pouch. This will ensure the pouch remains securely attached to the pew.
- There are no Masses during Holy Week until Holy Thursday 7pm.
- The Chrism Mass will be in Nelson at the Cathedral 7pm (PDT). You can livestream it at <https://www.facebook.com/nelson.cathedral>
- The East Kootenay Deanery Pilgrimage to Radium was a resounding success, drawing numerous pilgrims from across the deanery. The journey began with a reflective meditation on the Passion of our Lord as pilgrims made their way through the outdoor Stations of the Cross. Following this, the priests of the deanery offered the sacrament of confession, which many pilgrims embraced. Mass was celebrated by the Reverend Cerlouie Jimenez, Chancellor of the Diocese of Nelson, with the East Kootenay Deanery priests concelebrating. In his homily, he reflected on the history of the Jubilee Year, emphasized the virtue of hope, and presented a beautifully crafted plaque recognizing St. Joseph's Church as an official Jubilee Year pilgrimage site. The day concluded with a warm and joyful reception, where pilgrims had the opportunity to connect and share in fellowship.
-  This is a friendly reminder that the annual special collection for the needs of the Church in the Holy Land will occur at the Good Friday Service.

Catholic Catechesis:

Psalm 24:3-10

3 Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false, and does not swear deceitfully.

5 He will receive blessing from the LORD, and vindication from the God of his salvation.

6 Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob. [Selah]

7 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

8 Who is the King of glory? The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle!

9 Lift up your heads, O gates! and be lifted up, O ancient doors! that the King of glory may come in.

10 Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory! [Selah]

Divine Mercy Sunday is a deeply meaningful celebration, offering all believers an opportunity to embrace God's boundless mercy. It falls on the Sunday after Easter, as established by St. John Paul II, based on the revelations received by St. Faustina Kowalska.

To prepare spiritually for this great feast, parishioners are encouraged to start the Divine Mercy Novena and Chaplet on Good Friday. This nine-day prayer journey helps deepen our trust in God's mercy, leading up to the solemn celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday. Through this devotion, we open our hearts to Jesus' promise of grace and renewal.

Encourage your fellow parishioners by reminding them that Jesus Himself revealed the immense graces available to those who seek His mercy. He assured St. Faustina that anyone who approaches Him on Divine Mercy Sunday with a heart full of trust can receive complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

Let's embrace this opportunity to draw closer to the heart of Jesus! May this preparation inspire many to experience the peace and joy of Divine Mercy Sunday.
